

KENAI PENINSULA CWMA 10th Anniversary

Interested in the impacts of invasive species on your community? Want to know the why and how of these impacts and how they have been addressed over the past decade? Join us at the Annual Cooperative Weed Management Area's Weed Workshop April 26th, @ the Alaska Islands and Ocean Visitor Center, 95 Sterling Highway, Homer AK.

6 Great Reasons to Attend

- Elodea on the Peninsula
- KP - CWMA 10 Years of Combating Invasives
- Herbicide Longevity in Alaskan Soils
- Ornamentals into Invasives
- Resources to Identify, Control, and Contribute Information about Invasive Species
- Invasive Species Identification, Training, and Certification

Cheryl Anderson, USFWS
John Morton, USFWS
Steve Seefeldt, UAF-CES
Lydia Clayton UAF-CES

Gino Graziano UAF-CES

Sponsored by Kachemak Bay Research Reserve

This training session is scheduled from 1:00– 5:00 the focus is the identification of high-priority terrestrial, aquatic, and marine invasives, and science-based protocols for minimizing spread of invasives.

Please register for this training at <http://kpinvasives-homer.eventbrite.com>

Lunch will be provided on site for all attendees prior to the ID workshop. This workshop is free and open to the public. There will be second Invasive Species training offered May 10th@ the Kenai River Center from 8:30—12:30. Please register for this training at <http://kpinvaives-soldotna.eventbrite.com>.

WEED WORKSHOP

