Alaska Grown Day at the Alaska State Fair

(Palmer, AK) – The Division of Agriculture and the Alaska State Fair in Palmer are pleased to announce that they will again offer an agriculture pavilion to Alaska Grown vendors during the fair on Thursday, August, 28, which is Alaska Grown Day. The pavilion, which will include at least 10 spaces for vendor booths, debuted during the 2013 fair with great success for participants. Historical attendance at the fair that day is upwards of 25,000 people; this is a unique opportunity to showcase Alaska Grown products.

Anyone who is a member of the Alaska Grown certification program and is interested in having a booth at the Fair on Alaska Grown Day should submit an application before the July 18 deadline. Applications are available on the Division of Agriculture website at www.dnr.alaska.gov/ag Look under the “What’s New” tab.
