Alaska Grown Restaurant Rewards Program

Connecting Restaurants to Farmers

Program Overview

- Designed to build relationships between Alaska foodservice and Alaska food producers.
- Funding for this program comes from the USDA Specialty Crop Block Grant (for the reimbursement of specialty crops only).

“Bringing Alaskan Foods to Alaskan Families”

By purchasing and promoting Alaska Grown foods, your restaurant can receive a 17% reimbursement of your monies spent!

Our Goal:

To establish key partnerships between local restaurants and local producers

*Eligible Foods:

Any Alaska Grown specialty crop, such as:

- Vegetables- Carrots, tomatoes, zucchini, etc
- Fruits (Apples, raspberries, etc.
- Rhubarb
- Herbs
- Spices

Non-eligible foods (due to fund sources) include:

- Wild harvested foods
- Milk, meat and eggs
- Value-added products such as jellies, sauces, mead, and cheese

To be eligible for the program, specialty crops must come from a registered Alaska Grown Member.*
