

Ron Somerville
4506 Robbie Rd.
Juneau, AK 99801
907-780-4812

BRIEF BIO

Born in California on 8/16/37

Moved to Alaska at age of one

73 Year Alaskan Resident

Raised in Craig, Alaska

Commercial Fisherman for 14 years

Graduated from Humboldt State College with Bachelor of Science Degree in Wildlife Management

Graduated from University of Montana with Master of Science Degree in Wildlife Management

Served in Alaska Department of Fish and Game as a field biologist until being appointed as Regional Supervisor for the Game Division in Anchorage

Served as a Department of Fish and Game's contact with the Federal State Land Use Planning Commission

Served 4 years on Governor Jay Hammond's committee on d(2) legislation, including assignments in Washington, D.C.

Wildlife Biologist career in ADF&G included filling positions as Director of Wildlife Conservation and Deputy Commissioner

Deputy Commissioner duties included Department of Law, legislative and Washington DC liaison

Retired from Alaska Department of Fish and Game after 24 years as Wildlife Biologist

Worked as Executive Director of newly created Alaska Outdoor Council

Served as International and National Director for the Wildlife Legislative Fund of America in Washington DC

Worked for the Legislature and Governor's Office as Natural Resource Consultant for 12 years

Worked 18 years as Sportfish Charter Captain in Juneau

Served 5 years on Board of Game

Serves on Board of Directors of Territorial Sportsmen, Inc. in Juneau

President of new non-profit Juneau Shooting Sports Foundation, Inc.