

Federal Overreach Summit – Developing Strategies to Improve Alaska’s Relationship with the Federal Government

The Citizens' Advisory Commission on Federal Areas is sponsoring a Federal Overreach Summit at the Dena'ina Center, 600 West 7th Avenue, Anchorage on Monday, August 12 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and continuing on Tuesday, August 13 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The agenda will include presentations by State and Congressional leaders as well as individuals with extensive histories and diverse professional experiences to discuss, document, and raise awareness of Alaska’s relationship with Federal land and resource management agencies. The ultimate goal is to develop a collaborative, and effective action plan that can be implemented by the State Legislature, our Congressional delegation and the Governor.

The Summit will: Examine the promises made to Alaska at Statehood; present examples of how those promises have not been honored by the Federal Government; discuss the impacts of critical laws such as the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act and the Endangered Species Act; lay the groundwork for developing achievable State and Congressional policy initiatives to reverse Federal actions that infringe on Alaska's sovereign right to manage and utilize its lands, waters and wildlife resources in a responsible and productive manner; and forge a coalition of individuals, organizations, agencies, and companies who can continue the work.

The meeting is free and open to the public. You should consider attending if you are increasingly troubled about the patterns of Federal overreach in Alaska, are interested in finding workable solutions to these problems and want to 'Stand With Alaska' and other Alaskans to protect our Sovereign rights.

Please register at www.StandWithAlaska.com to reserve your seat, as space is limited. Follow the LINKS on this registration page for more information on the Commission, the Agenda, Presenter’s Biographies, Professional Submissions and more!

Members of the Public are encouraged to come and share their stories, comments and experiences for the public record. There will be a panel discussion on August 13 starting at 1:15 p.m. Time permitting, comments from the audience will be introduced in the discussion portion of the Summit by the moderator. All comments must include name and valid contact information to be considered. Items introduced to the discussion and public record are at the sole discretion of the Moderator. A videographer will be on hand if attendees want to share personal stories, knowledge and experiences for inclusion in the record for the Summit.

If you are unable to be in Anchorage for the Summit, the proceedings will be streamed live on Alaskalegislature.tv. Following the Summit, the proceedings, presentations and professional submissions will be posted online at: www.StandWithAlaska.com.

Can't make it, but still have a comment or story you'd like to have included in the Summit record? Have questions? Contact us by email at dnr.cacfa@alaska.gov.
