Celebrate Arbor Day in Alaska by planting a tree

(Anchorage, AK) – Join the Alaska Division of Forestry in celebrating Arbor Day on Monday, May 21.

Arbor Day is America's national tree planting holiday. It's the day set aside to plant ceremonial trees, educate children and adults about the importance of trees, and honor the important role that trees play in our lives. In Alaska, Arbor Day is celebrated on the third Monday in May.

If you would like to learn more about planting and caring for trees or would like to join in an Arbor Day celebration near you, visit the Alaska Division of Forestry Community Forestry Program's website at <http://forestry.alaska.gov/community>. Click on the news and events page for a list of Arbor Day celebrations around the state.
