Alaska Community Forest Council to meet on Friday, March 19

(Anchorage, AK) – The Alaska Community Forest Council (ACFC) is holding its spring quarterly meeting on Friday, March 19 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The meeting will be held via the online meeting platform Zoom. Members of the public who would like to join the meeting should contact the Community Forestry Program at communityforestry@alaska.gov to get details on how to log into the meeting. Agenda items include ACFC Arbor Day grants, applications for new members, and an update of the Council's bylaws.

The Council is a nonprofit organization and advisory body to the Division of Forestry that works to improve Alaskans' quality of life by expanding and caring for urban and community forests. The council promotes the management of trees and forests within communities to maximize the economic, environmental and social benefits of trees.

Information about the Council and the Division of Forestry's Community Forestry Program is available on the web at <http://forestry.alaska.gov/community/council> or by contacting the Community Forestry Program office at 296-8465, communityforestry@alaska.gov or by contacting Meg Burgett, Chair, Alaska Community Forest Council at (907) 315-9339, tripleb@mtaonline.net
