Instructions to Applicant

- To qualify for a trapping cabin permit for an existing cabin, the applicant must provide proof, attached to this application, of regular use of an established trapline supported by this cabin. Attach evidence such as tax returns and fur receipts showing income derived from trapping; official records of the Department of Fish and Game relating to trapline use; signed statements by witnesses or officers of the Department of Fish and Game or the Division of Fish and Wildlife Protection within the Department of Public Safety; and similar records. The applicant bears the burden of proof, so it is in your interest to provide as much documentation as possible to support your application.
- Also attach a 1:63,360 scale United States Geological Survey Map (USGS) or its equivalent, showing the location • of the established trapline and the existing cabins.
- No application will be accepted unless accompanied by the required fees. See current Director's Fee Order for • applicable fees. Make check payable to the State of Alaska.

If this authorization is granted, I agree to maintain the improvements and site authorized in a workmanlike manner, and to keep the area in a neat and sanitary condition; to comply with all the laws, rules, and regulations pertaining thereto, and provided further that upon denial or termination of the authorization for which the application is being made, I agree to remove or relocate any improvements owned by me and restore the area without cost to the state and to the satisfaction of the Director of the Division of Mining, Land and Water. I further acknowledge that a trapping cabin permit is nonexclusive and nontransferable; that it authorizes only temporary use of a cabin for shelter while trapping; and that the cabin may not be rented out for any purpose, or used for any purpose other than trapping.

The undersigned applicant certifies that the statements, evidence, and representations appearing in and attached to this application are to the best of his/her knowledge true and correct, and that the conditions of eligibility and issuance of a trapping cabin permit are binding upon him/her.
