Knik River Public Use Area Enforcement Regulations

The Alaska Department of Natural Resources, Division of Mining, Land, & Water will hold public meetings in Butte, Wasilla and Anchorage. The purpose of these meetings is to educate and inform the public about recently adopted Enforcement Regulations for the Knik River Public Use Area. These regulations were specifically created for the Knik River Public Use Area, and were promulgated as a result of public safety concerns and unlawful activities.

The dates, locations, and times of the public meetings are:

- | | | | |
|---------|-----------|-------------------------|----------|
| •Feb. 4 | Butte | Butte Elementary School | 6:30-8pm |
| •Feb. 5 | Wasilla | Teeland Middle School | 6:30-8pm |
| •Feb. 6 | Anchorage | Wendler Middle School | 6:30-8pm |

Information on the Knik River Public Use Area can be found on the website at: www.knikriver.alaska.gov
