NOTICES

Consistent with the Uncodified Law of the State of Alaska, an original permit holder may transfer the permit to an immediate family member; or add an immediate family member of the permit holder as an additional permittee with a right of survivorship. For an immediate family member to be added or transferred, the original permit holder must submit the immediate family member's name to the Department of Natural Resources. The permit is valid only during the lifetime of the immediate family member who has been added or transferred to the permit. No other future transfers or additions may be authorized under this statute.

Consistent with 11 AAC 65.900, an applicant must be an individual at least 18 years old who has resided in Alaska not less than one year immediately preceding the date of application.

AS 38.05.035(a) authorizes the director to decide what information is needed to process an application for the sale or use of state land and resources. This information is made a part of the state public land records and becomes public information under AS 40.25.110 and 40.25.120, unless the information qualifies for confidentiality under AS 38.05.035(a)(8) and confidentiality is requested, or qualifies for confidentiality AS 43.05.230, AS 45.48, or other state or federal laws. Public information is open to inspection by you or any member of the public. A person who is the subject of the personal information may challenge its accuracy or completeness under AS 40.25.310, by giving a written description of the challenged information, the changes needed to correct it, and a name and address where the person can be reached. False statements made in an application for a benefit are punishable under AS 11.56.210. In submitting this form, the applicant agrees with the Department to use "electronic" means to conduct "transactions" (as those terms are used in the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, AS 09.80.010 – AS 09.80.195) that relate to this form and that the Department need not retain the original paper form of this record: the Department may retain this record as an electronic record and destroy the original.
