Why be a member of the State Parks Advisory Board? Who are they? What are they responsible for? Where do I fit in?

Who?

Juneau Area State Parks Advisory Board is a group of 9 to 11 Juneau citizens diverse in age, professional backgrounds, and personal interests who come together monthly to advise the local Parks and Recreation Division of the Department of Natural Resources. The Advisory Board recommends and assists in planning related to state parks with the common goal of improving recreational opportunities and protecting our local state parks lands for the betterment of all citizens.

What?

The local State Park boundaries cover park facilities and lands at: The House of Wickersham; The Channel Islands State Marine Parks, marine parks in Taku Harbor, Funter Bay, Pavlofs Harbor, Oliver Inlet and Hand Troller’s Cove; Point Bridget State Park; Eagle Beach State Recreational Area, and The Ernest Gruening State Historical Site. State Parks manages 12 public-use cabins and 26 campsites for recreational use in Juneau.

When and Where?

The advisory board meets the first Monday of each month at the ADF&G meeting room downtown. Please drop in to hear about current issues and meet the members.

Meetings are 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. September through May.

Why?

This is your opportunity to share your values and beliefs about how to best preserve Juneau’s uniqueness, culture, heritage, and history while enhancing the recreational opportunities for the enjoyment of all.
