

The City of Nome

A rich history that leads to a bright future...

Snake River Sandspit NOM-146

Front Street

St. Joseph's Residence and Church, Nome, Alaska. No.

Old St. Joe's

Discovery
Saloon

Carrie M. McLain Memorial Museum
Richard Foster Building

KAWERAK

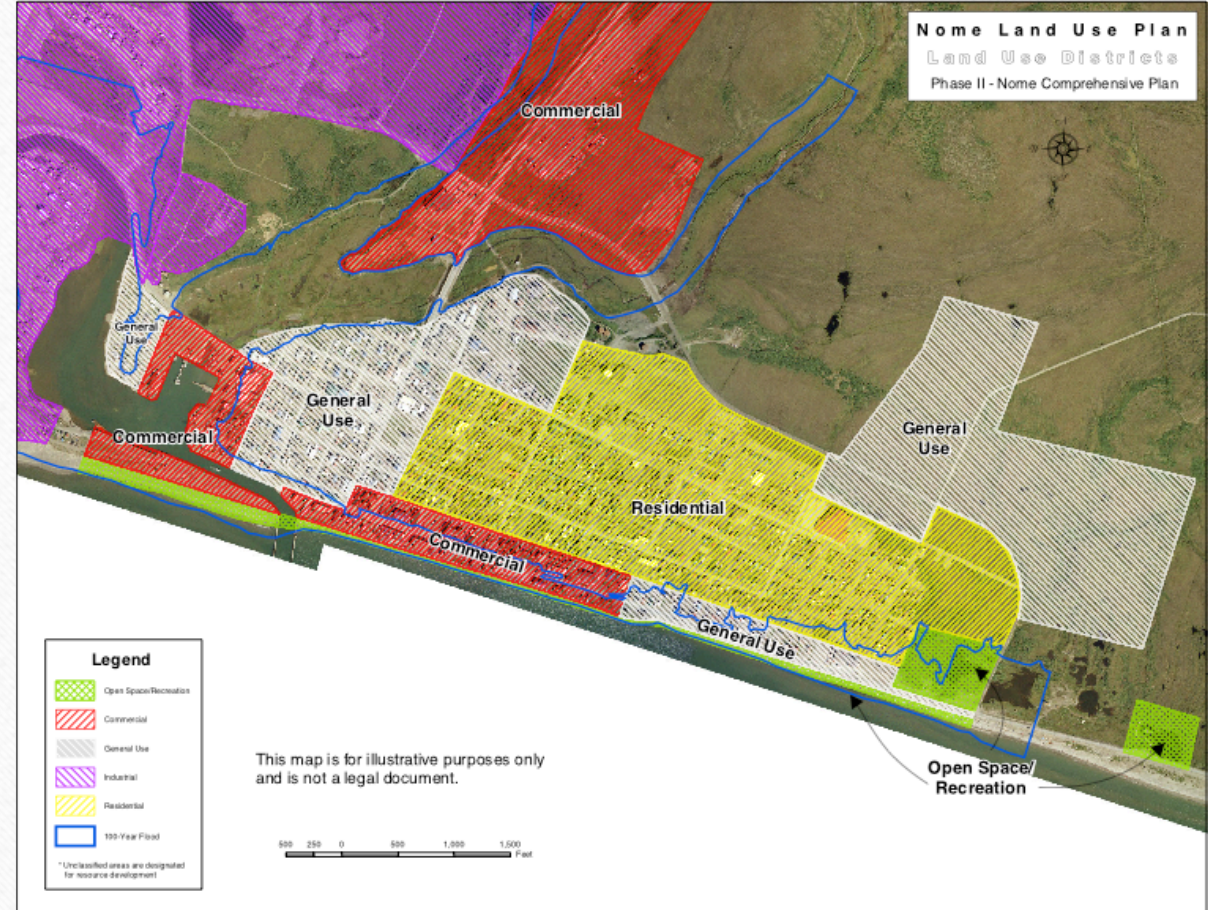

CULTURAL CENTER

KAWERAK, INC.

Nome Planning Commission

The City of Nome

A rich history that leads to a bright future...

Our Beginnings...

- Reference NEC's Website, include the history there
- Reference famine and lack of resources (e.g. driftwood from beach, animals to hunt, lack of fish)
- This left people open to disease...
- Many people died of TB
- Pilgrim Hot Springs Orphanage was created because of it...

Historic Gold Rush

- In 1899 the “Three Lucky Swedes” discovered gold on the beaches of what is now Nome.
- More about history...
- Include Pics

Historic Highlights: The Sandspit Site, Reindeer Herding and the Dexter Saloon

- Artifacts were discovered during a port expansion in 20— They included... Nome Eskimo Community was involved with ...
- Reindeer Herding
- The Dexter Saloon

Historic Buildings and Blended History

- Include pics and brief description

Current Projects

- The Richard Foster Building to include a New Museum, New Library and the Kawerak Cultural Center
- Preserving our Historic Cemetery

Ideas and Future Projects

- Overlay Zones (e.g. Dawson Canada)
- The formation of a Cemetery Association
- Proper documentation at the Sandspit Site (e.g. remembrance plaque for ancestors of NEC members)

Existing People and Resources

- Museum and Library Commission
 - List Names Here...
- Nome Planning Commission
 - Larry Peterson (Chairperson)
 - Robert Cahoon
 - John Odden
 - Derek McLaerty
 - Nikolai Ivanoff
 - Sara Lizak
 - Ken Hughes