2026 Kenai Peninsula Parks Recruits for Citizen Advisory Boards

(Soldotna, AK) — The Division of Parks and Outdoor Recreation is currently inviting Alaskans to apply for positions on three Citizen Advisory Boards on the Kenai Peninsula—Seward, Kenai River Special Management Area, and Kachemak Bay.

“Citizen Advisory Boards play an important role in assisting Alaska State Parks with management direction and provide the public with an opportunity to influence parks across the region,” said Hans Rinke, Superintendent of Kenai Prince William Sound Region.

Alaskans interested in applying for one of the Citizen Advisory Board seats can apply online or contact the Kenai Prince William Sound Regional Headquarters at Morgan’s Landing (907-262-5581).
