Citizen Advisory Board Recruitment on the Kenai Peninsula

(Soldotna, AK) — Alaskans have an exciting opportunity to advise Alaska State Parks managers for the next three years. DNR's Division of Parks and Outdoor Recreation is currently recruiting for Board members to serve on one of three Citizen Advisory Boards (CAB) on the Kenai Peninsula:

- Seward CAB
- Kenai River Special Management Area CAB
- Kachemak Bay CAB

"Citizen Advisory Boards play an important role in assisting Alaska State Parks with management direction and provide the public with an opportunity to influence outdoor recreation policy in their regions," said Ricky Gease, Director of the Division.

Locals interested in applying for one of the Citizen Advisory Board seats may apply online (<https://dnr.alaska.gov/parks/misc/advisboardapp.pdf>) or by contacting the Kenai/Prince William Sound Regional Headquarters: 907-262-5581.
