INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING A SITE USE PLAN

A site use plan is a written statement (narrative) and a site diagram describing the proposed use of state land. The information contained in a site use plan is needed to provide a complete understanding of the proposed use and helps to determine the terms and conditions of the authorization, if issued, and the level of bonding and insurance that may be required.

Insufficient information in the site use plan may result in a delay in processing the application.

If the application is approved, the approved site use plan becomes a part of the authorization document. The site use plan must be updated if changes to an approved project are proposed before or during the project's siting, construction, or operation; if any additional structures or improvements are proposed; or if there is a change in activity that was not addressed during consideration of the application. Please note that site use plan changes must be approved by the Division of Mining, Land and Water before any change occurs in use, construction, or activity. Conducting activities that are not authorized by the site use plan and authorization document could result in revocation and termination of the authorization and/or other appropriate legal action.

- I. Contents of Site Use Plan:
 - Site Diagram: drawn to scale (the attached diagram template may be used);
 - Written Project description: a detailed written description (narrative) of the intended use and level of modification planned under the authorization and an explanation of the site diagram; and,
- II. Required documents for incorporation into the site use plan.
 - A draft of the Environmental Covenant
 - Power of Attorney for a project agent to act on behalf of the applicant, if applicable.
- III. Narrative portion of the site use plan: The narrative should describe activities specific to your request and provide a description and explanation of the items shown on the site diagram. Rather than restating information included in other documents submitted with your application in the narrative, the narrative can reference those documents. When referring to other documents in the narrative, include the name of the document referenced and page numbers associated with the information requested. Following is a list of specific information to be included in the narrative, if applicable:
 - Legal description. Provide a legal description of the parcel, i.e. a metes and bounds description, survey, lot and block, aliquot part, or other legal description.
 - Terrain/ground cover. Describe the existing terrain/ground cover, and proposed changes to the terrain/ground cover.
 - Access. Describe existing and planned access, and mode of transportation. If public access is to be restricted, define possible alternative public access routes.
 - Engineering controls. Describe any physical methods proposed to eliminate or reduce exposure to residual contamination on the property (caps, covers, vapor mitigation systems, horizontal or vertical barriers, etc.).
 - Waste types, waste sources, and disposal methods. List the types of waste that will be generated during work on-site, including solid waste, the waste source, and method of disposal.
 - Hazardous substances. Describe the types and volumes of hazardous substances present or proposed, the specific storage location, and spill plan and spill prevention methods.
 - Water supply. Describe the water supply and wastewater disposal method.
- IV. Site Diagram portion of the site use plan: The site diagram must be drawn to scale, and each item labeled in such a way that the information contained in the diagram can be located in the narrative portion of the site use plan (professional quality, computer generated, site diagrams are preferred). If a diagram including all the applicable elements listed below is included in one of the required documents submitted with your application, provide the document name and page number for the diagram. Following is a list of information to be shown on the site diagram, if applicable:
 - Section, Township, and Range lines; North arrow; scale; title; and legend (attached is an acceptable format).
 - All property boundaries, ordinary or mean high water lines, and existing or proposed rights-of-way; major topographic features such as roads, streams, rivers, and lakes, and their geographic names.

- Boundary of proposed activity and use limitations. .
- Location and dimension of proposed engineering controls.
- Location and dimensions of any gravel pads, or cement foundations, buildings, and other structures and improvements, appropriately labeled.
- Location of any buried or above-ground utility lines (power, water, fuel, natural gas, etc.); sewage facilities, including sewage and wastewater outfall point; underground water system; and water source (if any).
- Location where any hazardous substances, including but not limited to oil, lubricants, fuel oil, gasoline, solvents, and diesel fuel, are proposed to be stored. Method of storage (tank, drum, etc.).
- Location of parking areas, and areas for the storage of inactive vehicles; snow storage areas; storage areas for any other items not mentioned above (drill rigs, camps, pipe, watercraft, etc.).
