DNR's 2015 Annual State Land Auction brochure available

The Alaska Department of Natural Resources (DNR) is pleased to announce the 2015 Annual State Land Auction. This year's auction features 260 parcels statewide. This year's land offering includes road-accessible and remote parcels ranging from the Southeast Alaska coastline to Interior river corridors. More than 78 parcels are new to the market this year.

Information about the parcels and how to participate, including an electronic version of the brochure, is available at <http://landsales.alaska.gov>. Free brochures are also available at DNR's Public Information Centers in Anchorage and Fairbanks and the DNR Land Counter in Juneau.

Alaska residents may submit sealed bids online, in person, or by mail, between 10 a.m., March 25 and 5 p.m., July 8. Apparent high bids will be announced on July 15. Bidders may purchase up to two parcels in this auction. See page 128 of the brochure for changes to the procedures on winning up to two parcels.

An Initial Over-the-Counter (IOTC) drawing and general Over-the-Counter (OTC) sale will follow the auction. The list of IOTC parcels will be available July 29, and IOTC applications will be accepted between 10 a.m. on July 29 and 5 p.m. on September 9. OTC sales of remaining parcels will begin September 30. Please visit landsales.alaska.gov or see the brochure for details of how to participate in the IOTC and OTC offerings.
