After review of breakup and freeze-up dates on the Kuskokwim River, DNR has decided to extend the staking period for drawing winners in the Granite Mountain Staking Area. This will give stakers additional time to access the staking area, by boat, via the Kuskokwim River. The staking period for alternates will be the same length, but with the start date and end date postponed two weeks. Dates for the Mount Ryan II Staking area will remain unchanged. The updated staking timeline for the Granite Mountain Staking Area is as follows.
