CHAPTER 35

AN ACT

[SSB 141]

To amend Chapter 123, Session Laws of Alaska 1951, pertaining to the dedication for highway purposes of a right of way along each section line; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska:

Section 1. Chapter 123, Session Laws of Alaska 1951, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. A tract one hundred feet wide between each section of land owned by the Territory of Alaska, or acquired from the Territory, and a tract four rods wide between all other sections in the Territory, is hereby dedicated for use as public highways, the section line being the center of said right-of-way. But if such highway shall be vacated by any competent authority the title to the respective strips shall inure to the owner of the tract of which it formed a part by the original survey.

Dedication for highways.

Section 2. An emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

Emergency clause.
