

Alaska State Historic Preservation Office/State Libraries, Archives, and Museums

Alaska Maritime Heritage Preservation Program Virtual Learning Session

When
Sept 21 at 1 PM

What
Is a reimbursable grant?

What
Information is required in a grant proposal?

What
Is eligible, what is not?

HOW
Do I submit a grant application?

What
Qualifies as match?

Where to Apply for grants

Alaska Maritime
Heritage Preservation
Program

Ahoy Mateys!

Does your community have a Maritime Heritage Project that needs funding? Consider attending the Alaska Maritime Heritage Preservation Program's second virtual learning session:

Preservation and Education Maritime Grants 101: How to Apply

Join State Historian Katie Ringsmuth, Statewide Services Curator Mary Irvine, and Grants Administrators Jean Ayers and Kathleen Tarr as they walk potential grant applicants through the step-by-step process on HOW to APPLY for two new preservation and education maritime reimbursable grants!

Session Date:

September 21 at 1-2:30 pm, via Microsoft Teams

Session Sign-Up:

Email dnr.oha@alaska.gov, provide your name, institution, and contact information.

Questions: Email us at dnr.oha@alaska.gov