

Alaska State Historic Preservation Office/State Libraries, Archives, and Museums
Alaska Maritime Heritage Preservation Program
Virtual Learning Session

Ahoy Mateys!

Congratulations on your recent Alaska Maritime Heritage Subgrant Award. You have a great project. Funding support. Now what?

Preservation and Education Maritime Grants 101: Managing Maritime Subgrants

Join State Historian Katie Ringsmuth, State Museum Curator Mary Irvine, and Division of Parks Grants Administrators Jean Ayers and Kathleen Tarr, as they help orient new grantees on HOW to successfully manage new preservation and education maritime reimbursable grants. This is a mandatory event for all Maritime Heritage grant recipients.

Session Date:

Thursday February 15 at 2-3:30 pm, via Microsoft Teams

Session RSVP:

dnr.oha@alaska.gov

If you cannot make this session or have additional questions, please email Katie Ringsmuth at dnr.oha@alaska.gov

When
 February 15 2pm
 Microsoft Teams

What
 Is the Scope of Work?

How
 To develop and manage a Project Budget?

What
 Are the grant's
 General Requirements?

How
 To calculate match?

What
 Is the education
 component, and how to I ensure that it's being met?