

Alaska State Historic Preservation Office/State Libraries, Archives, and Museums
Alaska Maritime Heritage Preservation Program
Virtual Learning Session

Ahoy Mateys!

The first round of maritime education and preservation grants is nearly complete. Now, it's time to share project challenges, workarounds, and successes and get answers to lingering questions.

Preservation and Education Maritime Grants: Success Stories

When
 Thursday, Nov 21
 1:30-3 p.m.

Where Microsoft Teams

What
 What are your successes?

How
 How did you solve problems?

What
 What contribution did the project make to Alaska's maritime history?

Identify
 Lessons learned

Provide
 Feedback to program staff

Consider joining State Historic Preservation Officer Judy Bittner, State Historian Katie Ringsmuth, State Museum Curator Mary Irvine, and Grants Administrators Jean Ayers and Kathleen Tarr for a conversation on current maritime projects. Share photos, lessons learned, and success stories. Ask program staff or fellow grantees about problem-solving or grant finalization. Each project leader will have 2-3 minutes to present.

Session Date:

Thursday, November 21 at 1:30-3 pm, via Microsoft Teams

Session RSVP:

dnr.oha@alaska.gov