

ARCHAEOLOGY FAIR

2026

There will be educational booths to learn about Alaska's greatest archaeological mysteries and stories. Perfect for kids AND adults. Kids can try a mock dig and adults can learn about the oldest archeological artifacts in Alaska.

10:30 a.m. – WWII and the Campbell Tract Walk - A shorter version of our summer WWII walks.

Noon – Performance by Ida'ina K'eljeshna (Friendship Dancers), revitalizing the Dena'ina ways of understanding through activities and education.

This event is free and open to the public.

Sat., Oct 3

10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
Campbell Creek Science Center